FIVE YEARS IN PEN

Louise Hankins "Swiped" Car o Stuff Belonging to Louis Hankins.

HAD JACKSON WARD BY EARS

Sold It, Putting Mr. Hankins's Picture Over Her-Mantle for Admiring Friends.

For beating the Southern Railway ut of household property valued as $1,000, Louise Hankins was sent to the penitentiary for five years after her trial in the Hustings Court yesterday. She was a pretty smooth crook. Early timore, decided to move to Richmond. and shipped his stuff here in his own name. In some way the card an-nourcing the arrival of the freight went to Louise Hankins instead of Louis Hankins, and having an eye for the main chance the woman proceeded to the station to get the goods. She to lid the agent that she was very much obliged for telling her that her effects and reached the city, adding that she and played in luck, as the shipment mane from her uncle.

Hung Pletures Up.

Several drays were chartered and Louise hit the ground in the high places only when she returned to Jack-son Ward. Mr. Hankins had one suite son Ward. Mr. Hankins had one suite of furniture worth $200, but as the thief needed money more than anything else, she sold it for $50, getting rid of other articles at ridiculous prices. It happened that Mr. Hankins shipped two large pictures, one of himself, and the thief swung them over the mantle for her admiring friends.

Wall Street Bear, Conducting Fearless
Campaiga, Makes Big Profit.

NEW YORK, October 14.—At the close of business on the Stock Exchange Saturday the paper profits of J. Brandt Walker were estimated at $4,000,000. Walker is one of the heaviest plungers in the campaign of depression which has been conducted in Wall Street with remarkable boldness during the last five weeks.

Walker hus pursued tactics that have amazed the old traders. He has sold the whole list without rogard, apparently, to intrinsic values. No stock has been too strongly held by the big Wall Street interests to find immunity from the onslaught of the bear party. Walker at the present time is said to be short 200,000 shares, and as far as Wall Street is able to judge, shows no intention whatever of covering. He publicly announces his bearlsh position and seems to make no effort to disguise his operations.

CAPTURES BIG RATTLER
AFTER IT BIT HIM TWICE NASHVILLE IND. October 14.—
Frank Samuels, aged sixty-two, while trying to capture a large rattlesnake, was bitten twice on the hand. Nevertheless, he succeeded in capturing the snake, however, by putting a forked stick over its head.

After capturing the snake he attempted to cut the flesh from around the wound on his hand with a dull pocket knife. His hand and arm are now in such a condition that blood poison is feared. A few days prior to this Samuels noticed a large rattler in the roadway, and, creeping upon it, succeeded in capturing it with his succeeded in capturing it with his this samuels noticed a large rattler in the roadway, and, creeping upon it, succeeded in capturing it with his hands without injury.

Samuels says he understood that a local physician was offering a reward of $25 for a live rattler, hence his action in going after the reptiles.
